

Work From Home Policy

Department: HR

Eligible employees may work from home up to two days per week.

Work-from-home days should be agreed with the reporting manager in advance.

Employees must remain available during normal working hours and attend scheduled online meetings.

Remote Work Requirements

Employees are responsible for maintaining a reliable internet connection while working remotely.

Company information must only be accessed using approved devices and security controls.

Working from home does not change normal performance, confidentiality, or attendance expectations.
